Vocabulary:	NCCAS: Characteristic(s): Attribute, feature, property, or essential quality Cultural contexts: Ideas, beliefs, values, norms, customs, traits, practices, and characteristics shared by individuals within a group that form the circumstances surrounding the creation, presentation, preservation, and response to art Medium/Media: Mode(s) of artistic expression or communication; material or other resources used for creating art
Lesson Procedure: (Approx. Duration)	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Watch an excerpt of the video showing Lawrence's Struggle Series and work. 2. Discuss characteristics of his work and how it communicates his experiences and culture 3. As a whole group, brainstorm a list of shared experiences 4. Work in small groups or as a whole group to answer questions on slides 3, 4, and 5 in the slideshow. Having a reference image at each table may be helpful. 5. Students sketch their plan for creating a collage that reflects their daily experiences or cultural traditions.

	a. Materials may include: Magazines, newspaper, scrap construction paper, cut up painted paper, fabric, scissors, glue, staples. Alternative lesson application may be to create a digital collage using a compilation of images cropped to create a sense of place rather than disjointed images. 6. Create collage. a. Jacob Lawrence often used blocks of color cut out in specific shapes to build cityscapes and figures. Faces were sometimes created the same way or cut directly from photos or magazines. Encourage students to draw a plan that includes a foreground, middleground and background as well as a center of interest prior to beginning to cut out or glue images
	Checking for understanding: Complete short brainstorming activities, shared experience write up, as well as participation in relating discussion. Monitor and discuss planning and thumbnail sketches. End of Lesson: Rubric demonstrating understanding and application of techniques Unit assessment (if applicable): Display and discuss artworks and shared cultures
